AROUND ASIA

Every month, we curate an online selection of stories from the previous month's print editions of Tatler Asia for you to enjoy

TATLER HONG KONG

Award-winning CNN anchor Kristie Lu Stout talked to Tatler about the power of storytelling and the importance of self-awareness.

TATLER MALAYSIA

Counsellor Sangheeta Sidhu talked about how she is pushing to destigmatise mental healthcare in Malaysia and how her personal experience of suppressing grief informs her work.

TATLER PHILIPPINES

Tatler caught up with Nico Santos, who opened up about representation, his unexpected Hollywood success, and being unapologetically Filipino.

TATLER KAZAKHSTAN

Ahead of the spring opening of Kazakhstan's Almaty Museum of Arts, the first private museum of contemporary art in Central Asia, we met with its founder Nurlan Smagulov, who is also the president of Astana Group.

SHANGLIU TATLER

Japanese visual artist Miwa Komatsu, known for her bold, dynamic paintings that often explore Japanese mythology, shared insights into the stories behind her creations.

TATLER SINGAPORE

Marvel actor Simu Liu spoke about standing "eye to eye with Ryan Gosling" in Barbie and fulfilling his dream of redefining Asian representation.

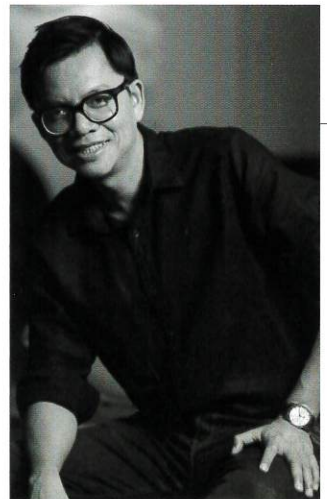

TATLER TAIWAN

Cary Hsieh founded Mediot and its subsidiary FarHugs, a platform that provides psychological counselling to individuals in need. He told us how he learned the importance of taking care of oneself before helping others.

TATLER THAILAND

After receiving the Legacy Award at the Tatler Best of Asia 2024, Chumpol Jangprai, the celebrated Thai fine-dining chef behind the award-winning R-Haan restaurant, spoke to Tatler about his mission to elevate Thai cuisine on the global stage.

TATLER VIETNAM

Renowned architect Tran Le Quoc Binh, one of the first architects in Vietnam to apply green design principles to his projects, told us how he creates sustainable and environmentally friendly living spaces.
